Effect of Industrial Policy on export/ imports

3714. SHRI GAYA SINGH: Will the PRIME MINISTER be pleased to state:

(a) whether the new industrial policy has helped in raising export and reducing imports as expected; and

(b) if so, the details thereof?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF INDUSTRY (DEPARTMENT OF INDUSTRIAL DEVELOPMENT) (SMT. KRISHNA SAHI): (a) and (b) The policy initiatives taken in the new Industrial Policy in July, 1991 the Trade Policy and supporting fiscal and monetary measures announced subsequently are together aimed at accelerating the growth to industrial production, enhancing productivity, efficiency of the industrial sector and at improving our overall international competitiveness. These policy initiatives and measures and the external environment for trade mainly determine the level of export and imports. While it is not possible to isolate the impact of the new Industrial Policy and it is also premature to assess the overall impact of the changes in the Policy regime on the export performance and the level of imports, the provisional data shows that in US Dollar terms, exports increased by 5.1 per cent and imports by 25.1 per cent during April-September, 1992, as compared to the corresponding period last year.
